

F-1 degree-seeking and certificate students must show adequate funding for their first year of study, with an indication that their funding will continue to be available for future terms. F-1 Intensive English Program students must show adequate funding for the length of their program. J-1 exchange students must show adequate funding for their semester/year of study. KSU does not provide funds for financial aid to foreign students. For the current required funding amounts, visit: <https://dga.kennesaw.edu/iss/>

A financial statement in USD from your institution(s) must be submitted to KSU in order to receive an I-20 or DS-2019. A sponsor affidavit is also required, unless the funds are in the student's name. Acceptable affidavits include: a personal letter, a financial guarantee from an institution, a US I-134 form, or this KSU Affidavit Form.
